

2.5.A Petitions (C) Colored Teachers of Loudoun March 1926

March 6, 1926 The "Colored" Teachers as a group wrote to School Board, through O.L. Emerick asking for a pay raise. Emerick wrote back on March 12 that Board could not agree.

Round Hill, Va.,
Mar. 6, 1926.

Mr. O. L. Emerick
Purcellville, Va.

My dear Sir:

There is enclosed herewith petition made for more salary for next term.
I hope our petition meets with your approval as Loudoun County is one of the foremost counties in this great State.

Very respectfully
C. L. Murray

Petition March 6, 1926

To
The Loudoun County School Board
(Through the Division Superintendent)

We, Colored Teachers, of Loudoun County, Va, assembled at Round Hill, Va. Mar 6, 1926, do hereby present the following petition:-

Whereas our present salary is insufficient to meet the high cost of present living conditions, and whereas our duties, obligations, and responsibilities entitle us to higher pay,

Therefore we respectfully request that your Board allow us a reasonable increase of pay----

Mr. C. L. Murray,
Round Hill, Va.

Dear Sir:

Your petition for more pay was received and laid before our board on March 9. The board was unable to find additional funds to grand the increasexx at this time.

Very sincerely yours,

Division Superintendent.
