March 19, 1951

TO: Members of the Loudoun
County School Board

Please take notice that your chairman has directed me to call a meeting of your Board in Leesburg, on Wednesday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m. to consider a proposal to submit the recently adopted School Building Program to the County Board of Supervisors for their approval and such other business as may properly be acted upon by the Board.

The superintendent requests me to state that he will suggest further consideration of the following in relation to the central high school.

1. Site
2. Name
3. Architect
4. Signing and forwarding applications for Literary Loan and School Construction Fund.

Very sincerely yours,

Ruth M. Emerick
Clerk
