

idea of men telling women they must not have anything they want to have. This will make American Mrs. Paakhursts.

No wonder they will not permit higher education of women by the State.

If men think they are stronger than women men should set a good example to women.

E. C. H.

LOUDOUN COUNTY GIRL WEDS FILIPINO LOVER.

Chains of love and matrimony bound old Loudoun to the Philippine Islands recently in Washington when Miss Bertha Ramsey, of Middleburg, Loudoun County, Va. became the bride of S. P. Bautuoso P. Castio, of the Philippine Islands. Castio was born in the Philippines and is at present employed in the War Department studying American affairs. He said to be about twenty five years old. After the groom finishes his studies he will take his young wife back to the Philippines with him. Miss Ramsey, it is said, met her Filipino suiter while visiting friends in Washington.

COL. A. W. JONES

get by with nothing more than just being a touch of color or fat. The snake is the most abused of to give a Baron M effect to tales and and this one is a true story happened in Danville, J. T. Whitworth, w a dairy, recently bo apples which, like th Garden of Eden, lo tempting. They we red. Upon reaching Whitworth selected to eat, and as he too bite he pulled out a s the size of coarse wra and 13 inches long, worth placed the r bottle and now has it tion. Hereafter, wh apples, he will peel a them, making sure th not again get a mouth when he eats his ap

WASHINGTON HERALD BOUGHT BY

The Washington H ded seven years ago