

The County School Library has received a donation of $117 from Honorable Wilbur C. Hall. Mr. Hall explained that this represented a 30% cut in his salary and mileage allowance for the special session of the general assembly and that he did not feel he should accept full pay but preferred that the Loudoun County schools receive the benefit of this sum rather than the State of Virginia.

September 8, 1933.