

*file
publicly*

There now exist 21 teaching vacancies in white schools and 6 in colored schools in Loudoun County for next session. It is probable that 9 of these 27 positions will be filled by the appointment of teachers now in the system and for the other 18 new teachers will have to be found. The prospect is not very bright at this time.

O. L. EMERICK
DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT

May 17, 1945