

Program of Loudoun County Institute for Colored Teachers - Leesburg, Va.

Oct. 17, 1921.

Morning Session 10:00 A. M.

Devotional Exercises

Roll Call

Opening Exercises

Miss Helen Ray

Health Talks

Miss Anne Gulley

Organization of Colored Teachers Association

How to Teach Spelling Effectively

Mr. Bushrod Murray

The Project Method in Teaching Geography and Arithmetic

Mr. John C. Walker

Intermission 12:00 - 1:00 P. M.

Why is review of lessons an important factor in teaching?

The elimination of unnecessary subjects.

How can better attention be secured in classroom?

When is a school in order?

The correlation of seat work with the lesson.

Miss Mamie Waters

What are the present day problems that claim the attention of educators?

The arrangement of the daily schedule.

Preparation of the lesson.

What is your school doing toward the School Fair.
Report from each teacher.