RCA VICTOR BASIC RECORD LIBRARY

Edited by LILA BELLE PITTS and GLADYS TIPTON,
Teachers College, Columbia University

This 21 album library of musical compositions representative of the world's noted composers provides a complete music program for grades one through six. In choosing this repertoire of 370 classical, modern, and folk music works, Miss Pitts and Miss Tipton have carefully considered the musical needs and potentialities of expression of pupils at each grade level. Also they have planned for balance in rhythm, listening and singing programs, and included five special activity albums.

There are 121 rhythmic compositions, 92 works for listening, 83 pieces in the Singing Program, plus the Singing Games, Patriotic Songs, and Christmas Songs. An album for Rhythm Bands and an Indian album complete the set. Each album is accompanied by thorough teaching suggestions for developing the music program and for correlating music with other subjects in the elementary curriculum.
