

we work for dry areas everywhere, emphasizing our belief in total abstinence for the individual, and the prohibition for the nation."

Six new department directors for the year were chosen at a meeting of the executive committee preceding the general session and all other directors were re-appointed.

Negro Nurses to Attend Conference Here Today

Delegates from West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia will meet at 8:15 P. M. today at Leigh Street Methodist Church for the Southeastern regional conference of the National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses, Inc.

Speakers scheduled to address the group include Mayor Edwards; Miss Pearl McIver, senior nurse officer, chief office of public health nursing, United States Public Health Service; Mrs. Marian J. Sands, secretary, Negro Organization Society of Virginia, and Miss Josephine McLeod, secretary-treasurer, inspector of schools of nursing, State Board of Nurse Examiners.

The meeting is open to the public.

AUTOMATIC MA
COAL-F SPACE HE

Suitable for dome
commercial est

1946 Marian Sands at Nurse Conference

Clipped By:

roederaway5201
Sun, Aug 16, 2020