www.edwinwashingtonproject.org.

Please share your stories. How did you get from home to school and back? Did you walk, ride a horse, take a bus, train or car?

We especially want to reconstruct the routes. What was along the road? Tell us your personal stories. What did students do on the way?

No event reservation required. Just show up.

Background: The Edwin Washington Project is a 501©(3) non-profit that is exploring life and education in segregated schools between 1865 and 1968. We are interested in all aspects, the classes, the buildings themselves, sports and fun. Your stories matter. Please share them.
