11. Do Column 20, in Table 1, and Column 24, in Table No. 6, show the District School levies and County School levies, distinctly and separately? yes

12. If a City Superintendent, have you given the assessed values in Table No. 1, and after making an estimate of the rate of levy required to produce your total revenue, have you inserted this rate in Column 20? yes

13. Have you observed the rule of considering only the warrants actually paid by the Treasurer and not the warrants issued, so as to avoid a double basis of settlement? yes

14. Have you included all pupils studying higher branches in both High Schools and Grammar Grades in Columns 47 and 48, Table No. 4? yes

15. Have you given a statement of particulars of every school building completed during the year? .....

16. Have you taken pains to give the information required in Table No. 8 fully and accurately? yes

17. Have you given a detailed list of private contributions on this sheet? .....

18. Report any irregularities which may have been discovered in the proceedings of any Board, or in the acts of any official, together with such action as was taken by the County or City Board in regard thereto.

19. Were the written statements required by law laid before the Board of Supervisors or Council? yes

20. Do your District Boards or City Boards hold REGULAR meetings, and how often? yes

21. How many schools have been discontinued in consequence of consolidation of schools.

DISTRIBUTION OF GENERAL STATISTICS

NOTES AND EXPLANATION OF HEADINGS

TOTAL.—Under this heading include the sum of all figures in the columns to the right, these columns to contain no duplicates. The figures in Column 2 must be consistent with the figures in Tables 2, 4, 5, etc., but should also include salary paid Division Superintendent by State.

NORMAL SCHOOLS.—Include normal training high schools.

SCHOOLS FOR THE INDUSTRIES.—Include only those schools which offer training in specific vocations. Include agricultural high schools. Do not include those schools in which instruction in hand training is offered with a general educational aim, as for example, the prevailing type of manual training high school.

SPECIAL SCHOOLS.—Include schools for blind, deaf, feeble-minded, delinquents, dependents, etc., if any, which are under control of local school officials.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES.—Include lectures, playgrounds, social centers, etc.

Do not fill those blanks in which crosses have been placed and report totals only, where it is impracticable to itemize by schools.

If a person is employed in two kinds or classes of schools or functions enroll him in the higher one if he gives one-half or more of his time to those duties; otherwise in the lower school or function.

NOTES: (a) Amounts entered in column 19 should equal the totals of amounts entered in columns 2 to 18 inclusive, and multiplied by rate of taxation should give amounts entered in column 21.
 (b) Give simply the rate of District School Tax for each district in lines devoted to "District School Levies" and County School Tax in the line containing entry "For County School Levy." Do not add both together in any instance. No totals should appear between red lines at bottom of table unless the assessed value for county school levies is actually the sum of the assessed values for district levies; be sure to give the rate of county school tax in column 20. See column 24, Table 6.
 The City Superintendent is asked to give the assessed values and in column 20 the rate which would be required to produce the total revenue provided no appropriation were made by the Council. Under Remarks he should give the actual rate of levy in case the revenue is derived partly from a levy and partly from an appropriation.

NOTES:
 (a) The word "Schools" here means Schoolrooms.
 (b) In reporting the number of pupils enrolled, the Superintendent must not forget to make due allowance for pupils who attended more than one public school during the school year, so that they may not be counted twice.
 (c) Do not report fractions in these columns. If the fraction exceeds .5 enter next higher integer. Report here total number of pupils in all schools, elementary, high, day, evening, vocational, special, etc. See special tables for evening and special schools.

NOTE—(x) Do not include grammar grades if taught in same building. No high school can have more than four grades. If high school and grammar school are in same buildings these separate schools should be reported both under "a" and "b" or "a" and "c". Has this been done? yes

EXPLANATIONS—(a) Found by dividing the aggregate amount of money paid and to be paid to the teachers of the school for services during the year, by the number of pupils on the roll, and dividing the quotient by the number of months the school was taught. (b) Found by dividing whole cost of school in same way.
