Col. No. 2. Be sure to list name exactly as it is written on the teacher's certificate. If teacher has married since certificate was issued, married name should also be given. If your division employs personnel for night classes or for some purpose other than the regular day schools, names should be listed under suitable heading after all day schools.

Col. No. 15. Show rate of annual salary for position even though person may actually receive less because of late employment.

Col. No. 16. Show number of months in period of employment as it appears in contract even though, for convenience, salary payments may be distributed over a greater number of

Col. No. 17. Use the following code when listing Grade of License: PP, Postgraduate Professional; CP, Collegiate Professional; C, Collegiate; S, Special; SP, Special Purpose; T, Temporary Teacher's Certificate; EL, Elementary; EP, Elementary Professional; PE, Provisional Elementary; EM, Emergency License; LP, Local Permit. NP, Non

Col. No. 20. If teacher has more than one degree, give only highest degree held.

NOTE: The listing of substitute teachers is not required but it is requested that the names of substitute teachers be given on a separate sheet. Nothing but the names are wanted preferable not to use the standard form for this listing. The law has not yet defined a substitute teacher but it is commonly agreed that a teacher employed continuously (year) or more ceases to be a substitute.
