Bond Issue Set for Feb. 14

Bussinger Urges Citizens To Study Needs and Vote

Voters in Loudoun will be called upon to act on a $3 million bond issue for Loudoun county schools at a special election February 14. Judge Rayner V. Snead of Loudoun Circuit Court on Monday set the referendum date.

The bonds would finance the construction of a new $1.5 million high school at Purcellville, a $500,000 elementary school in Sterling, and additions to Douglas High for Negroes, Douglass Elementary for Negroes, Bancker Elementary for Negroes and Hamilton Elementary for white pupils.

The additions would total $525,000. The remaining $475,000 would be used for improvement of other elementary schools.

Superintendent of Schools C. M. Bussinger who will be speaking in various sections of the County during the next three weeks in support of the bond issue said this week that it was of extreme importance to each person to study the needs of the schools and vote on February 14. The vote will be long range in effect and cover school needs over a period of years said Mr. Bussinger.

Who May Vote

Voters who were eligible to take part in the past November general election, will be qualified to vote in the February 14 special election.

New residents and those becoming 21 since last November are exceptions and may secure the needed information to qualify from Treasurer George W. Titus or from precinct registrars. The last day of registrations is February 8.

Leesburg PTA Gives Support

Leesburg elementary school PTA in session Monday night voted unanimously to support the school bond issue. The organization directed that a copy of the resolution supporting the bond issue be sent to the Board of Supervisors; and a copy be sent to the School Board.
