DR. C. E. BROWN, ROUND HILL
Miss RUTH M. EMERICK, CLERK

July 1, 1926.

Subject: Hearing of Appeal in Lincoln School Case.

To Parties In Interest:

Please be advised that the school trustee electoral board by proper resolution at a duly assembled meeting held on June 30, 1926, has decided to hear the appeals of F. Mercer Love and others and A. N. Adams and others from the action of the county school board which on April 10, 1926 decided to re-build the Lincoln high school on the former site.

The hearing will be held at Lincoln on July 9, 1926, at 11:00 A. M.

Each side will be limited to 2 hours in presenting its case.

The clerk of the board is authorized to summon such witnesses as he may be requested to summon.

A copy of this letter is being sent to each member of the county school board, to attorneys for both sides, and to F. Mercer Love, and A. N. Adams.

Very sincerely yours,

Division Superintendent.
