Extract from minutes of County School Board, Aug. 10, 1948

Be It Resolved:

That the resolution adopted on May 11, 1948 as recorded on page 179 of minute book No. 3 be hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor: That in response to a petition from a group of responsible and competent parents the County School Board of Loudoun County, Virginia effective for the session 1948-49 and until otherwise ordered does hereby authorize and approve the release of all school pupils for non-compulsory, non-sectarian religious instruction for a period of one hour each week, provided that a parent or guardian shall sign an appropriate request for such release and provided that parents in the local community shall be responsible for securing these signed requests outside of the public school and provided that the school board granting such release and the parents to whom the pupils are to be released and such religious instructors as these parents may employ, shall understand and recognize that all classes in religious and moral instruction shall be operated independently of the control, supervision, or responsibility of the public schools and provided further that no public funds shall be used.
