

Amendment to Constitution of Virginia

"Constitutional Convention Ballot:

"INFORMATORY STATEMENT

"The Act of the General Assembly submitting to the people the question below provides that the elector is voting for or against a convention to which will be delegated by the people only the limited powers of revising and amending Section 141 of the Constitution to the extent that is necessary to accomplish the following purposes, and no other powers:

"To permit the General Assembly and the governing bodies of the several counties, cities and towns to appropriate funds for educational purposes which may be expended in furtherance of elementary, secondary, collegiate and graduate education of Virginia students in public and nonsectarian private schools and institutions of learning in addition to those owned or exclusively controlled by the state or any such county, city or town.

"The act also provides that the legal effect of a majority vote for a convention will be that the people will delegate to it only the foregoing powers, except that the convention will be empowered to ordain and proclaim said revisions and amendments adopted by it within the scope of said powers without submitting same to the electors for approval, but the convention will not have the power to either consider, adopt or propose any other amendments or revisions.

"In the light of the foregoing information the question to be voted on is as follows:

"Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?

For the convention.

Against the convention."
