Mrs. Mabel Taylor
Lincoln
Virginia

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

The members of the school board felt that they should stand by their rule in reference to your request that your grandson be permitted to ride the school bus from Hamilton to Lincoln and that they could not grant such permission.

Very sincerely yours,

O. L. Emerick
Division Superintendent

Dear Mr. Emerick:

Trans routes

It bothers me to be the
"Cone's Tail" in matters such as this, but I have had to send two bus schedules back to drivers for corrections.

Appologetically,
J. Lupton.

Three men did not do what I asked them to do.

File

Dear Sir

My bus schedule was turned in to Mrs. Taylor at the Lincoln High School office two days before school was dismissed for the summer, to be mailed to your office. It must have been misplaced. She should be able to help you locate it.

Sincerely yours
William Carbaugh

Dear Mr. Simpson:

William Carbaugh and Harry Hall say that they turned their end of the year school bus schedule in to your office to be forwarded to us.

We seem not to have them.

Would you perhaps have any others?

Very sincerely yours,

O. L. Emerick
Division Superintendent

Mr. J. Lupton Simpson

Lincoln, Va.

Dear Mr. Simpson:

I enclose forms for the schedule of bus No. 41. Will you please help Ray make this out? It is Mrs. Mayse's job but she is not familiar with the routine and besides you have the driver there with you. Please have him leave a copy with Mrs. Mayse.

I noticed this morning that one pupil is picked up at the Graham (VanDevanter) road and another at the Jackson-Fraser road. These should be consolidated into one stop as they are too close together.

Very sincerely yours,

Division Superintendent

Mr. Asos A. Wiloy
Lincoln
Virginia

Dear Mr. Wiloy:

The School Board has authorized the extension of your bus to end of road on Mt. Gilead.

This is Route No. 662 and you are to go up to pick up the Bailey children and turn around at whatever suitable place you can find.

Very sincerely yours,

C. L. Merrick
Division Superintendent
