

Thursday, November 13, 1958

LINES FROM LOUDOUN

By Mrs. P. S. Drummond

Sunday, November 23, Sister Martha Taylor will preach at the First Baptist Church, Bluemont. The Four Echoes of Washington will give a song service at 8 p.m. The program is sponsored by Mrs. Alene Carey.

The County Wide League is celebrating its 21st anniversary on Friday night, November 21, in the form of a banquet which will be held in Douglass High School's auditorium. Tickets are now on sale. Proceeds will go towards the annual scholarship fund. Charter members of this organization will be honored. The guest speaker will be Dr. E. B. Henderson of Falls Church.

The Douglass High School Rams won their homecoming game on Friday afternoon, the score being 12-7, their opponents were Parker Gray High of Alexandria. Douglass' Homecoming Queen this year was Miss Ruth Smith of the twelfth grade. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith of Leesburg. Miss Smith's attendants were Miss Ellen Peterson of the eleventh grade, Miss Shelia Bryant of the tenth grade and Miss Joyce Grayson of the ninth grade. Cli-maxing the day was an after the game dance.

On our sick list are the following: Mrs. Hester Jones of Leesburg. Mrs. Jones is a patient at Loudoun hospital, Mrs. Janie S. Redwood has returned to her teaching duties at the Douglass Elementary School. Mrs. Redwood was hospitalized for several days last week. Mr. and Mrs. D. T. White of Hughesville are improving at their residence in Hughesville. Mrs. Margaret King of Purcellville is a patient at Loudoun hospital also Mrs. Lizzie Standard of Purcellville. Mrs. Emily Smith and her father Howard Hackley have each been hospitalized and have returned to their home in Purcellville.

The decorating committee of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, Lincoln, wishes to thank friends for their liberal contributions towards their recent floor rally. The committee raised $210.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Carey of Purcellville, Sunday were Mrs. Rosalie Mac of Washington, Mrs. Ruth Gardner and Mrs. Anna Carter of Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stickland and daughter, Lorette and Mr. and Mrs. James Wood of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hampton and Dudley Gaskins of Willisville.

Our deepest sympathy goes to the family of the late Will Roberts of Leesburg, Mr. Roberts was a member of the Providence Baptist Church of Leesburg.

There will be a Sock Hop at the Carver School, Friday night, November, 14, from 8 until 10 p.m. Refreshments will be on sale. Admission will be 35 cents, sponsored by Mrs. Maude Smith for the Queen—King contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledgener Buckner of Washington visited Mrs. Pauline Dawson of Middleburg, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Courm and family of Washington visited Mr. Courm's parents in Bull Run.

Attorney and Mrs. Herbert Tate and son and Harrison Tate of Montclair, N.J., visited with Mrs. Louise Sands in Purcellville Friday. The Tates are vacationing in Washington.

Chicken and chitterlings dinners will be sold at the home of Mrs. Nannie King of Hamilton, Friday evening, November 14.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Lincoln of Round Hill has been announced. Mrs. Lincoln is the former Miss Nancy King of Raleigh, N.C.

Miss Norman Rogers, George Rogers and Freddie Green of Ashburn and Mrs. Thomas Jones and Robert Sims of Dranesville all visited in Laurel, Md., recently.

There will be a dance at the Douglass high school Friday night, November 28, sponsored by Ed Brown and John Tolbert for the benefit of the school band. The main feature of the evening will be the "Diamonds." Admission will be $1.25.

A son, David Kevin Fairfax, was born October 31 in Loudoun Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Fairfax of Purcellville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry C. Lincoln of Round Hill are the parents of a son, Scott Mayo, born November 1 at the hospital.