

$3,000,000 B. & O. LOAN AUTHORIZED

R. F. C. Aid of Build 320 Coal Cars, 2,500 Freight Cars and 165 Engines.

The Associated Press. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. today was authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission to borrow $3,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to build 320 coal cars and 2,500 freight cars and to rebuild 165 locomotives.

It was authorized as a "work" loan under the plan worked out two months ago at conferences between Interstate Commerce Commissioners, directors of the Reconstruction Corporation and railroad executives.

The money is expected by railroad officials to provide employment for 1,500 men on a 30-hour-week basis for six months.

Of the money $900,000 will be used to rebuild and repair locomotives, $1,100,000 for repairing cars and $1,460,000 for building new all-steel gondola cars.

The Baltimore & Ohio on March 30 and May 16 received approval of loans aggregating $32,500,000 and on August 15 further loan of $31,625,000 for financing.

Announcement was made by the Reconstruction Corporation that a loan of $81,166 has been authorized to care for needs of St. Louis County, Mo., and the cities of St. Joseph, Nev., and Henrietta. It is to take care of emergency relief needs from October 1 to December 31.

Speaks to Colored Democrats. ROCKVILLE, Md., October 13 (Special).—Theodore S. Batts, president of the Progressive Democratic Club of Washington, addressed the Rockville Colored Democratic Club at its rally held here last night. Gentry H. Harrison, president of the local organization, presided.

Under the plan of the contest, as applied solely to England, each participating school submits its best essay—contestants being allowed to write on any British statesman of the last 200 years. With the essay is submitted a record of the contestant's general activities, including, of course, public speaking. On the basis of his essay and his general record the winner is designated, there being no oral competition, though special importance is attached to the forensic talent shown by the contestant in his school work.

List of English Contestants. The English contestants who have been chosen in previous years to speak in the contest under this system follow: William Meades Newton (1926), Holt Secondary School, Liverpool, subject, "The British Empire"; James Keith Watson (1927), Craigie Lea, Ben Rhydding, Yorkshire, subject, "England's Contribution to Constitutional Government"; Dudley Raymond Barker, Bourmouth School (1928), "The English Government System"; P. Whittall Allen, Liverpool (1929), "William Ewart Gladstone"; Jack Mallard Germain (1930), London, "David Lloyd George"; John Thomas Lumsden (1931), Peterborough School, "Disraeli."

COMPARES SHARING OF WORK AND FOOD

Teagle Cites Feeding Four-Fifths, With Other Fifth Starving.

CLEVELAND, October 14.—Sharing of work, just as food is shared in times of famine, was urged yesterday by Walter S. Teagle of New York, chairman of the Co-Ordination Committee of the National Share-the-Work Movement. Teagle, who is president of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey, told the Chamber of Commerce "the principle of sharing work in a depression such as this is comparable to what is done by civilized people in a famine situation. "If there is but a limited amount of food to go around, no one suggests feeding four-fifths fully and letting the other fifth starve. The available food is rationed. That is what we now recommend be done with work, because there is a partial famine in jobs, which are basic to obtaining the necessities of life." He said his own company, by spreading its work and shifting personnel, has kept 3,000 persons on the pay roll who otherwise might be jobless. "Thousands of other employers can do likewise, he said, adding that "those at Washington are agreed we cannot expect prosperity while 10,000,000 of our people are without means of livelihood." His advice was "don't lay off your help. If your situation seems to demand that, look into the possibility of dividing such work as you have among all members of your present force. If this is now adopted as a general policy the downward trend of employment will be ended."

All States Officers to Meet.

An adjourned meeting of the All-States Officers' Society will be held at 8 o'clock Monday night in the Willard Hotel to hear committee reports and set a date for the annual meeting in November, since the regular date falls on the eve of the general elections this year, it was announced by W. E. Hoffheins, president of the association.
