

Special Memorandum on Forum at Hamilton

November 1, 7 P.M. Hamilton School (Supper)

What are the main differences between our present government and the proposed executive form?

Mr. Lytle

Is the Government of Loudoun County a business?

What are the main differences between the organization of a business corporation and the Government of Loudoun County?

Is the government of Loudoun County a government by the people of Loudoun County or by the People of the State of Virginia? (Show State Control over practically all expenditures)

Under the new form of government would the people of Loudoun County control their own government?

Why haven't more counties adopted a revised form of government which was authorized in 1932?

Can you make some comparisons of Loudoun County and Albemarle County?

Were the figures recently published comparing the two counties and opposing the proposed change correct? If not, Why?

What are the main defects of the present form of government?

In principle, who should be elected? Appointed?
