2. In each of the areas we will want to consider:

1. How the people obtained food, clothing and shelter.
2. How they traveled showing the progress of transportation.
3. How they communicated with each other and the progress made in the ways of communication.
4. How they governed themselves.
5. How they had fun and the types of recreation.
6. How they were educated.
7. Their religious life.

3. Also how can we show a contrast of now and then as to:

1. Home life now and then.
2. Changing methods of earning a living.
3. Changing modes of travel, communication, etc.
4. Changing costumes, recreation, etc.
5. Changes in the ways of governing themselves, if any.
6. Changing ways of farming.

4. We will also want to discuss:

1. What is being done in your county and school in this project. What are your future plans as to this project?
2. Any interesting facts discovered.
3. What resource information can you share with others.
4. What suggestions do you have to offer to make this study have more meaning to you.
5. Evaluate the general value of this work and give your suggestions.
