

Program For Loudoun County Teachers' Institute

Leesburg High School

General Sessions

Supt. O. L. Emerick, Presiding

Thursday Sept. 6, 1923 - First Day 10:30 A. M.

Friday Sept. 7, 1923 - Second Day 10:00 A. M.

1. Opening Exercises (each day) Song America m. B. Cochelle

2. Roll Call (every teacher present each day)

3. Rules and Regulations Read and Discussed.

Bring 3 lessons slide

4. Organized Play in the School. - Miss Tillet, Mr. Brann

Throwing snowballs?

5. The First Day of School. - J. S. Simpson, Miss Cox, M. B. Costello, Ellen Collier make assignments with out books

2.

6. What the Community League Has Done for My School. Mrs. Rainey, Miss Turner

7. Organization of Teachers' Association. Mr. M. C. Starke, Prin of Ashburn, Va. County Chairman of Leagues.

7a. Read Letter from Mr. Hestrole.

8. The Best Way to Get Text-books for the Pupils. Paterson
Dealers - Nielsen Company, Leesburg, A. H. Connell, Pineville, Round Hill Pharmacy, Round Hill
W. W. Welch & Co., Middleburg.

9. The Work of the Health Unit Among the Schools. - Dr. P. M. Chickester.

X

10. Shall We Recommend Repeal of the Requirement That Teachers Make a Physical Inspection of School Children in Counties That Have a School Nurse. ||

11. Temperance Essays. - Mary T. Shoemaker

12. The School Assembly as a Unifying and Uplifting Influence in the School Program.

13. The Progress of Our Schools as Revealed by Certain Figures. X

X

14. Shall We Hold a School Fair in 1923-24? ).

14

15. How Supervision of Class-room Instruction May be Made of Definite and Positive Value to Loudoun Schools. +

16. Should Our Schools Run All the Year. +

Adjourn for Lunch Each Day at 12:30 P. M. +

Convene for Afternoon Session Each Day at 1:30 P. M.

Adjourn Each Afternoon at 3:30 P. M.

11 45 How many want lunch

1923

First Afternoon

Primary Group Miss Pearl Coffey, Presiding

- 1. Study and Discuss New Elementary Course of Study.
- 2. Changes in Text Books.
- 3. Should More Attention be Given to Memorizing, Especially of Poetry?

Grammar Grade Group Mrs. N. M. Vincel, Presiding

- 1. Study and Discuss New Elementary Course of Study.
- 2. Changes in Text Books.
- 3. Why is History the Most Poorly Taught Subject in Our Schools?
- 4. Should More Attention be Given to Memorizing, Especially of Poetry?

High School Group Mr. N. C. Starke, Presiding

- 1. The Faculty Meeting as a Co-operative and Professional Factor in Our High Schools.
- 2. Changes in Text Books.
- 3. Use of High School Vacant Periods.
- 4. Length of High School Day.

Second Afternoon

Elementary Group Miss Eliza Lunceford, Presiding

- 1. Fundamentals of Expression in the Elementary Grades.
- 2. Demotion of Pupils.
- 3. Is the Departmental System of Teaching Advisable for Elementary Pupils?
- 4. How Much History and Geography of Loudoun County Should be Taught and When?

One-and Two-room Group Miss Pearl Coffey, Presiding

- 1. What is the Chief Function of Supervision?
- 2. How Can we Use the Project Method in Improving Instruction?
- 3. Relative Time Needed for Each Subject and Each Grade.

High School Group Mr. C. D. Rainey, Presiding

- 1. What Part of the Discipline of a School Should Rest Upon the Assistant Teacher.
- 2. Problems of Pupils Loafing in Town of and Stores.
- 3. What Subject is Most Neglected in the Elementary Grades.
- 4. Should Every School Require Two Years of Algebra and Plane Geometry for Graduation.

Program for Loudoun County Teachers' Institute
Leesburg High School

General Session

Supt. O. L. Emerick, Presiding

Thursday September 6, 1923 - First Day 10:30 A. M.
Friday, September 7, 1923 - Second Day ~~10:00~~ 10:00 A. M.

1. Opening Exercises (Each Day)
2. Roll Call (Every Teacher Present Each Day)
3. Rules and Regulations Read and Discussed.
4. Organized Play in the School. ✓
5. The First Day of School. ✓
6. What the Community League Has Done for my School. ✓
7. Organization of Teachers' Association. ✗
8. The School Assembly as a Unifying and Unlifting Influence in the School Program.
9. How Supervision of Class-room Instruction May be Made of Definite and Positive Value to Loudoun Schools.
10. Should Our Schools Run All the Year.
11. The Progress of Our Schools as Revealed by Certain Figures.
12. The Work of the Health Units ~~Among~~ the Schools.
13. Shall we Hold a School Fair in 1923-24?
Adjourn for Lunch Each Day at 12:30 P. M.
Convene for Afternoon Sessions Each Day at 1:30 P. M.
Adjourn Each Afternoon at 3:30 P. M.
14. The Best Way to Get Text-books for the Pupils.
15. Should the Physical Inspection of School Children ~~by~~ be Made by Teachers?
16. Temperance Essays

First Afternoon

Primary Group

Miss Pearl Coffey, Presiding

1. Study and Discuss New Elementary Course of Study.
2. Changes in Text Books.
3. Should More Attention be Given to Memorizing, Especially of Poetry?

Grammar Grade Group

Mrs. N. M. Vincel, Presiding

1. Study and Discuss New Elementary Course of Study.
2. Changes in Text Books.
3. Why is History the Most Poorly Taught Subject in Our Schools?
4. Should More Attention be Given to Memorizing, Especially of Poetry?

High School Group

Mr. N. C. Starke, Presiding

1. The Faculty Meeting as a Co-operative and Professional Factor in Our High Schools.
2. Changes in Text Books.
3. Use of High School Vacant Periods.
4. Length of High School Day.

Second Afternoon

Elementary Group

Miss Eliza Lunceford, Presiding

1. Fundamentals of Expression in the Elementary Grades.
2. Demotion of Pupils.
3. Is the Departmental System of Teaching Advisable for Elementary Pupils?
4. How Much History and Geography of Loudoun County Should be Taught and When?

One-and Two-room Group

Miss Pearl Coffey, Presiding

1. What is the Chief Function of Supervision?
2. How Can we Use the Project Method in Improving Instruction?
3. Relative Time Needed for Each Subject and Each Grade.

High School Group

Mr. C. D. Rainey, Presiding

1. What Part of the Discipline of a School Should Rest Upon the Assistant Teacher.
2. Problems of Pupils Loafing in Town of and Stores.
3. What Subject is Most Neglected in the Elementary Grades.
4. Should Every School Require Two Years of Algebra and Plane Geometry for Graduation.