Memorandum to Newspapers:

All of the high schools of Loudoun county have recently been accredited for the school year 1947-48. In sending certificates accrediting the high schools, the State Supervisor of Secondary Education has called attention to a number of deficiencies in the various schools in the county.

Very sincerely yours,

O. L. Emerick

Division Superintendent

Some question has arisen about accreditation of the Loudoun County High School this year.

The facts are these:

This school much more nearly meets all requirements for accrediting than any former high school at any time.

Dr. Woodrow Wilkerson states that he will recommend to the State Board of Education that they accredit the school this year.

The Loudoun County Superintendent of Schools states that there is no doubt in his mind that the school will be accredited.

NEWS RELEASE

The State Board of Education has accredited the Loudoun
County High School for the session 1954-55.
